

Lord,

Let me be strong and courageous today. When I am afraid, remind me not to panic about things that have not, and might never come to pass.

Teach me to trust, to remember, that you God will personally go ahead of me. Remind me always that you will not leave me, fail me, nor abandon me.

You are not like mankind, but instead, you are God. My champion.

Amen