

Dear Lord,

Help me see my home through your eyes. Thank you for the gift of these walls and the people to love within them. I am tired and sometimes the days seem monotonous with mountains of laundry, and dishes to wash.

Give me a fresh perspective to appreciate the gifts that are easy to overlook. Help me to understand that what I see as mundane, you see as the Holy work of home.

Give me direction on how to spend my time. To prioritize my tasks. To help me put You at the top of my morning, to help guide my days. To remember that ALL times are good times to come before you.

Please bless my home Lord, give us peace and security and a place of refuge from the chaos of the world. Help me set boundaries to protect family time. To make strangers into friends here. To love well and remember to open my door, remind me that people want only to find comfort in community, and my house doesn't need to look new and the "best".

Lord, remind me that what is best is a home filled with love. I am tired as I come before you, sometimes distracted by the next step, and chores that seem never ending. Help me to see the beauty in the ordinary, and sustain me when life feels overwhelming.

Amen
